Getting to Cambridge

By Air

- Stansted Airport (08700 000303) is the nearest international airport to Cambridge, being approximately 30 miles south. Luton Airport is fairly close, and Heathrow approximately 1 hr 30 minutes. Express Train services from Stansted Airport to Cambridge take 45 minutes and information can be found by following the 'To and from our Airport' link on the Stansted Airport home page. Book with National Express Coaches online after checking their regular services from Stansted, Luton, Heathrow and Gatwick airports; alternatively tickets can be purchased on board the coach. National Express coaches (telephone: 08705 80 80 80) run daily services from Cambridge to most airports in the UK.

By Train

- There are frequent trains to Cambridge from London (King's Cross and Liverpool Street stations). Direct express trains run from London Kings Cross every 30 minutes and take 48 minutes. From the north, connections are usually made via Peterborough or Ely. For comprehensive links and details of these services and for general railway information please visit the National Rail Enquiries web page.
- Cambridge railway station is on Station Road (see location on University map).

By Coach

- National Express run regular services nationwide to and from Cambridge, Drummer Street/Parkside, which are in the City Centre.

By Car

- From the South & from London, Cambridge is a short trip up the M11 motorway. From the north, the A1 and M1 link to the A14 dual carriageway straight to the city, and from the east and west, the A14 again takes you to Cambridge.
